

Convention for MGCF touristic rallies

1. Cars allowed to participate. MG or other brand cars

2. Procedure.

This is a tourist ride on the open road, without classification or regularity test. It is in no way a sporting or speed event.

3. Highway Code

Participants undertake to comply with the requirements of the Highway Code and the decrees municipalities of the agglomerations crossed. Any violation of the traffic code, as well as the fines relating thereto, are at the sole responsibility of the participants. During a cellar visit, the tasting is done under the full responsibility of the pilot of the vehicle and in no case the MGCF cannot be responsible during a blood alcohol test positive.

4. Administrative control

The drivers certify on their honor to be in possession and able to present the following documents:

- Valid driver's license. This also applies to the co-pilot, if he is required to drive.
- V5 corresponding to the vehicle entered.
- Insurance document corresponding to the vehicle entered.
- Up-to-date technical control.

5. Technical checks

Safety points to check: tyres, brakes, lighting, windshield wipers, warning triangle security, yellow signal vest. The organizers can refuse the departure of a vehicle which would present a character of insecurity, without it being possible to claim compensation. The rally plates cannot, under any circumstances, hide the license plates and must be firmly attached to the car.

6. Sanitary rules

During an exceptional health situation, impacting the progress of our gatherings, the participant agrees to comply with national and local health rules and municipal decrees in force on the date of release. Any breaches of these rules and their consequences are the sole responsibility of the contravening these sanitary measures.

7. Insurance

The outings organized under the auspices of the MG Club de France are provided by the RC Police of the Club. Each entrant, in the event of an accident, remains responsible regarding the other entrants and third parties, and renounces to engage the responsibility of the MG Club de France in any capacity whatsoever.

8. Commitment

The regularly engaged participant, who does not take the start, cannot be reimbursed. of its entire commitment, a sum remaining acquired by the MG Club de France for cover the costs already incurred at the time of its withdrawal, depending on the conditions cancellation of the registration form.

9. Application of the rules

By virtue of their commitment, each participant is deemed to agree with this rules and agrees to abide by the decisions of the organizers. Under no circumstances does the MG Club de France cannot be held responsible in the event of an accident or offense during the expression.

I acknowledge having read the rules (check the box)

Last name & First name

Date